

★ ★ ★

NIGHTLIFE: Walt Harper has lined up a bright array of top names for the fall season at his Attic.

The Modern Jazz Quartet, making their first nightclub appearance in Pittsburgh, will appear at the Market Square spot from Oct. 4 to 7. They recently finished a European tour.

The young Jamaican pianist Monty Alexander, a favorite of Frank Sinatra, will hold forth for five nights and one matinee beginning Oct. 24.