Jazz Trio Is Here Sunday

The Monty Alexander Trio will perform in Canandaigua on Sunday at 8:15 p.m., at the Junior Academy on North Main Street. The concert is sponsored by the Canandaigua Lively Arts Council and Community College of the Finger Lakes.

Jazzman Alexander, a native of Kingston, Jamaica, began to develop his talent for playing the piano at the age of four. By 11, he was playing calypso and rhythm and blues.

The bass of the Trio is provided by Eugene Wright, bassist for many years with Dave Brubeck. Completing the trio is drummer Bobby Durham who played with Lionel Hampton, Grant Green, the Lloyd Price band, Duke Ellington and the Oscar Peterson Trio.

Admission to the Sunday evening concert is by Series membership ticket only.
